

2017/2018 Corporate Partnership Guide

Welcome

Hattie Larlham is a nonprofit organization that provides medical, residential, recreational and work training services to 1,700 children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Northeast and Central Ohio. The organization provides services to children and adults at the Hattie Larlham Center for Children with Disabilities in Mantua, Ohio, and in community-based homes throughout Ohio.

Partners

Hattie Larlham's success is steeped in community involvement. For more than 55 years, people and companies have invested in Hattie Larlham's mission.

Corporate partnership is more than attending an event or displaying a logo—it's an investment in the people Hattie Larlham serves. Hattie Larlham's corporate partners will help shape the future of the children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities we serve.

The opportunities presented in this partnership guide further kindle Hattie Larlham's relationship with the community. Compassionate people with the resources of Ohio's business community can greatly affect the wellbeing of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

PARTNER BENEFITS

- A seat on the Hattie Larlham corporate leadership committee
- Corporate volunteer opportunities
- Exposure on Hattie Larlham's website, social media and publications

Partner Involvement

Hattie Larlham seeks to engage Northeast Ohio's business community to find new opportunities for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. These may present as work training opportunities, corporate volunteer projects, participating on committees, social media and promotional support and financial contributions.

Create Opportunities

Your company or organization has many resources of benefit to the people with intellectual and developmental disabilities Hattie Larlham serves. Work training and employment development is an important Hattie Larlham service. By opening your company's doors to employees with intellectual and developmental disabilities, you create an opportunity for personal and economic growth in Northeast Ohio. Share your industry with the people Hattie Larlham serves and open a world of possibilities.

Our Mission

Hattie Larlham's mission is to provide comfort, joy and achievement to children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. This simple, heartfelt goal requires the hard work and determination of an entire community. It is a goal Hattie Larlham cannot accomplish alone. When you become a corporate partner, your company is invested in Hattie Larlham's mission. Our success becomes your success.

Promote Your Partnership

Thank you for investing in Hattie Larlham. Your partnership supports programs for children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. There is much to gain from your partnership.

Share your partnership with employees, website visitors, social media followers and local news media. This informs audiences close to your business or organization about your commitment to our community.

Hattie Larlham's communications department will work with your company's marketing or public relations department to support your messaging efforts.

Share your partnership with your employees. A company newsletter or e-mail informs employees of the partnership and extends an invitation to attend an event, volunteer with Hattie Larlham or make a donation. Many companies match employee donations.

Tell company shareholders and boards of directors. These influential people may decide to sponsor, attend or donate when they learn about the commitment to Ohio children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Social Media

Use social media to share your support of Hattie Larlham's mission. Sharing your partnership increases brand awareness and community visibility.

When your company or organization makes a post about a Hattie Larlham event, tag Hattie Larlham, use event hashtags and follow Hattie Larlham on Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn to share and like Hattie Larlham's social media with your company's followers. By sharing Hattie Larlham social media, you strengthen your brand with followers and increase exposure.

Thank You

Thank you for being a Hattie Larlham corporate partner. Your investment in Hattie Larlham enhances the lives of 1,700 Ohio children and adults with developmental disabilities.
